

Asking for information

Dear Mr Claire,

Having read about your advertisement in the VOGUE magazine I'm really interested in joining one of your „Double lighthouse” tours. I would be really grateful, if you could give me more information about this upcoming tour.

Could you tell me the exact time we would be leaving or the time we need to be at the station or the river? Is the food and the whole trip included in the price and can I pay the full price now via Pay Pal or do I need to hand it before the start of the trip?

I would also like to know, where we would be staying at? Because as I read, the trip would last three days. Also, is there a vegan food menu option? I would be willing to pay more for this, because I wouldn't like to ruin my four year record.

I look forward to hearing from you in at least a few days.

Yours sincerely,

Madison Jull
